Second Weekend Sends WVU to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina

The 2017 season continues for the West Virginia University baseball team at the Caravelle Resort Tournament this weekend, with two games at No. 19 and defending national champion Coastal Carolina and single games against George Mason and Ball State, from Feb. 24-27, in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

The Caravelle Resort Tournament begins for the Mountaineers on Friday, Feb. 24, at 3 p.m. ET, against George Mason. Saturday, the Mountaineers play at Coastal Carolina at 2 p.m., before taking on Ball State on Sunday at 11 a.m. The weekend concludes at Coastal Carolina on Monday at noon.

WVU's two neutral site contests will be played at TicketReturn.com Field at Pelican Ballpark, home of the Class-A Myrtle Beach Pelicans, in Myrtle Beach. West Virginia's two games at Coastal Carolina will be played in Conway, at the Chanticleers' home ballpark, Springs Brooks Stadium.

West Virginia will play a defending NCAA champion for the first time in program history and travels to Myrtle Beach for the 11th time since 2005.

The Mountaineers (1-2) are coming off a season-opening weekend at Charlotte. WVU won the series finale, 6-3, after falling in Friday's opener, 6-3, and on Saturday, 13-2. Conner Dotson earned the win on Sunday, allowing one run in 6.0 innings, as every batter in the Mountaineer lineup recorded at least one hit.

The Patriots (2-1) are coming off a 21-1 win against Virginia Military Institute after opening the year with a 12-8 loss at UNC Wilmington and a 3-1 win over Appalachian State. The Chanticleers (2-3), who won their first NCAA title a year ago, opened the season with a four-team tournament at home. CCU's title defense started with an 8-5 win over Richmond before losing its next three. On Wednesday, Coastal defeated College of Charleston, 16-7. The Cardinals (2-1) began the year with two of three games against top-25 opponents. The season opened with an 8-3 win on opening day against No. 22 Maryland before a 3-2 win over Alabama State and a 10-4 loss to No. 6 Louisville.

Four right-handers are the projected starters for the Mountaineers. Junior BJ Myers will get the start on Friday night against George Mason righty Tyler Zombro. Sophomore Michael Grove will take the mound on Saturday at Coastal Carolina against fellow righty Andrew Beckwith. On Sunday, freshman Carter Camp makes his first career start against Ball State. Dotson gets the ball in Monday's finale and will face CCU right-hander Zack Hopeck.

Following Along

Live stats will be available for all four games, while all three of WVU's opponents will have an online audio broadcast. Links to live stats and audio are available on the baseball schedule page on WVUsports.com. Additional behind-the-scenes updates and notes from Myrtle Beach can be found on social media by following and connecting with the team at @WVUBaseball on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

Quick Hits: Key Team Notes

- West Virginia is celebrating its 125th year of baseball. Founded in 1892, WVU is 2,096-1,504-19 all-time
- Eleven Mountaineers saw their first career action in the opening weekend at Charlotte, including TJ Lake, who started all three games at second base and had three hits, and Brandon White, who started Saturday and Sunday's games in center field and had four hits and two RBIs
- Every Mountaineer in the lineup in Sunday's win had at least one hit
- WVU's two games at Coastal Carolina mark the first time in team history the Mountaineers have faced the defending national champion
- WVU travels to a tournament in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, for the 11th time since 2005, with the only exceptions being 2011 and 2016
- Coach Randy Mazey is 125-103 at West Virginia and became the fifth coach in program history to eclipse the 100-win mark and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons
- West Virginia was voted to finish fifth in the 2017 Big 12 Conference baseball preseason coaches' poll, WVU's highest preseason ranking since joining the conference in 2013
- WVU won 36 games in 2016, the most wins in a single season in coach Randy Mazey's four years and the most since 2009 (37)
- WVU went 3-1 at the 2016 Big 12 Championship and advanced to its first Big 12 Championship game and first conference title game since 1996
- Darius Hill and Ivan Gonzalez were named to Freshman All-America teams after leading WVU in several offensive categories as freshmen in 2016
- WVU has had 14 draft selections in coach Randy Mazey's four seasons, the most draft picks in a four-year stretch in team history
- Attendance has increased in each of WVU's first four seasons in the Big 12 Conference, highlighted by a program-record total of 40,390 fans in 2016, for an average of 1,346 fans per game, after WVU averaged a record 1,507 in the inaugural season at Monongalia County Ballpark in 2015

Last Week: Opening Weekend at Charlotte

West Virginia opened the 2017 season with a three-game series at Charlotte, where the Mountaineers went 1-2. WVU won the series finale, 6-3, after falling on opening day, 6-3, and 13-2 on Saturday.

- West Virginia rallied from two down in the seventh inning, but it was not enough in a 6-3 loss on opening day. The Mountaineers trailed 2-0 early but scored two in the fifth inning on a two-run homer by junior Kyle Davis to tie the game. WVU took a 3-2 lead in the top of the seventh, but the 49ers answered with four runs in the bottom of the inning. Sophomore Cole Austin led WVU with a career-high three hits. Junior starter BJ Myers pitched 6.1 innings and allowed four runs on six hits and suffered the loss. He struck out three and didn't surrender a walk.
- WVU lost the second game of the series, 13-2, on Saturday. Sophomore Darius Hill led the Mountaineers with two hits and drove in both WVU runs. Sophomore starter Michael Grove allowed four runs on six hits. He struck out four and walked two and suffered the loss. Nine Mountaineers made their career debuts on Saturday.
- Every Mountaineer had a hit and sophomore right-hander Conner Dotson pitched 6.0 strong innings in Sunday's 6-3 win. Dotson allowed one run on seven hits and WVU's six runs came on 12 hits. The 49ers (2-1) also had 12 hits, but were held to three runs and four West Virginia pitchers helped Charlotte strand 11 baserunners. The WVU offense was led by freshman Brandon White, who had a career-best three hits and drove in the first two runs of his career. Hill had a two-hit, two-RBI game for the second day in a row.

Up Next: Mountaineers in the Bayou

West Virginia begins a nine-game, 12-day roadtrip with six games in Louisiana from March 2-8. The trip begins at Nicholls State on Thursday, March 2. WVU then travels to Tulane for a three-game series, beginning on Friday night at 7:30 p.m. ET. After a day off on Monday, March 6, the Mountaineers conclude their stay in the Bayou State with a pair of games at Southeastern Louisiana, on March 7 and 8.

Scouting Coastal Carolina

After winning its first NCAA title last season, Coastal Carolina is 2-3 after opening the year at home with the Baseball at the Beach tournament. After three consecutive losses, CCU beat College of Charleston, 16-7, on Wednesday.

- Billy Cooke leads the team with a .438 batting average and seven hits. Peyton Isaacson is second with a .417 average and five hits. On the mound, Alex Cunningham is 1-0 with a 3.60 ERA. Will Latcham, who has pitched 4.0 innings in relief, leads the team with a 0.00 ERA and is tied for the lead with five strikeouts.
- Gary Gilmore is in his 22nd season as the head coach at Coastal Carolina. He is 849-441 with the Chanticleers, which ranks No. 35 all-time on the NCAA D-I wins list. The 2016 National Coach of the Year, he has guided CCU to 14 NCAA Tournaments, three super regionals and a national title in 2016.

Series History vs. Coastal Carolina

The Mountaineers are 2-7 all-time against the Chanticleers, with all nine games coming in either Myrtle Beach or Conway since 2005.

- Coastal Carolina won the first game, 13-2 in 2005. The two teams split in 2006, including a 10-3 WVU win. CCU won the next four games, from 2007-10.
- In 2014, WVU traveled to Myrtle Beach, where they posted a 6-2 victory. Current Mountaineer Jackson Cramer started at first base and walked twice.
- The 2015 matchup went 13 innings before CCU prevailed for a 4-3 win. Kyle Davis had two hits and an RBI, Cramer had one hit and Conner Dotson pitched the final two innings, allowing one earned run on two hits with three strikeouts.

Scouting Ball State

Ball State enters the weekend with a 2-1 record after the Cardinals played a pair of ranked teams in Clearwater, Florida. BSU opened the year with an 8-3 win over No. 22 Maryland, followed by a 3-2 victory against Alabama State. The Cardinals closed the weekend with a 10-4 loss to No. 6 Louisville.

- Trent Theisen leads the team with a .500 batting average and is tied for second with four hits. Alex Maloney leads the team with five hits and has two RBI with a .417 average. Colin Brockhouse is 1-0 thanks to 4.1 scoreless innings in relief in Ball State's upset win over Maryland. He allowed one hit with eight strikeouts and is one of three pitchers with a 0.00 ERA and at least three innings pitched.
- The Cardinals are led by Rich Maloney, in his 12th season. He owns a 734-482-1 career record and a 393-238-1 record at BSU. He was at Ball State from 1996-2002, coached at Michigan from 2003-12 and returned to the Cardinals in 2013. He has guided Ball State to four MAC regular-season titles, and is a three-time MAC Coach of the Year, most recently in 2014.

Series History vs. Ball State

West Virginia is 1-0 all-time against Ball State, thanks to a 7-6 win at the 2015 Chanticleer Classic in Myrtle Beach. Jackson Cramer started at first base and had an RBI on one hit. Kyle Davis also had a hit and started in left field.

Mountaineers Against the Defending Champions

Saturday's meeting at Coastal Carolina marks the first time in team history that the Mountaineers have faced a team the year after winning a national championship.

West Virginia has faced a team once in the same season that they won a national title, in 1955 against Wake Forest. WVU hosted Wake Forest in the NCAA Tournament, with the Demon Deacons winning two out of three games and advancing to the College World Series. West Virginia lost the opener, 5-1, on May 28, before a 9-7 victory on May 30. In the finale, Wake Forest earned a 6-5 win. WVU handed Wake Forest one of its seven losses in its national championship campaign.

WVU a Frequent Visitor to Myrtle Beach

West Virginia is making its 11th trip to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, since 2005. The Mountaineers have played in multiple tournaments, both at Coastal Carolina's Springs Brooks Stadium in Conway, and at Pelicans Ballpark, home of the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, Single-A affiliate of the Chicago Cubs. WVU is 13-19 since 2005 at the two ballparks and 5-5 since 2013, coach Randy Mazey's first season at the helm.

Celebrating 125 Years

- West Virginia begins its 125th year of baseball in 2017. Founded in 1892, WVU owns an all-time program record of 2,096-1,504-19.
- WVU has had 19 coaches. Dale Ramsburg (1968-94) owns the record for most wins, with 534. A.R. Stahlings was the program's first coach, from 1894-96. Current coach Randy Mazey is fifth all-time in wins (125).
- A total of 14 Mountaineers have earned All-America honors. Ivan Gonzalez and Darius Hill are the most recent honorees, having both earned Freshman All-America accolades in 2016. Two more All-Americans are on the 2017 roster, in juniors Kyle Davis and BJ Myers, who were recognized on Freshman All-America teams in 2015.
- West Virginia has made 11 NCAA Tournaments, most recently in 1996.
- The Mountaineers have been members of six conferences and own a total of 19 conference championships. WVU was an independent from the program's founding in 1892 until 1950, when it joined the Southern Conference from 1951-1968. West Virginia was an independent again from 1969-1980. The Mountaineers were in the Eastern 8 from 1981-82 before becoming the Atlantic 10 in 1983. From 1996-2012 West Virginia was in the Big East. WVU joined the Big 12 in 2013.
- Twenty-three Mountaineers have played in Major League Baseball. The list includes current St. Louis Cardinals infielder Jedd Gyorko, a Morgantown native.
- Eighty-two Mountaineers have been selected in the MLB Draft. That includes 2016 draftees Chad Donato (11th round, Houston Astros) and Blake Smith (29th round, Los Angeles Angels).
- West Virginia did not field a team from 1943-45, due to World War II.

Freshmen All-American Duo

For the second consecutive season, a pair of Mountaineers earned Freshman All-America accolades when outfielder Darius Hill and catcher/third baseman Ivan Gonzalez were honored.

- Hill was named to five Freshman All-America teams: Baseball America Second Team, NCBWA Second Team, Louisville Slugger as selected by Collegiate Baseball newspaper, Perfect Game Second Team and D1Baseball.com Second Team.
- Gonzalez was honored by Baseball America.
- Hill's three honors marks the seventh time in team history a player has earned at least three All-America accolades in a single season and the second in as many years, joining Kyle Davis. Gonzalez becomes the 16th player in program history to earn at least one All-America honor and it is the 43rd honor overall for the program.
- Both were named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team, while Hill was selected to the All-Big 12 Second Team and Gonzalez to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention team.
- Hill led the team with 75 hits, 20 doubles and four triples and was second on the team with a .342 batting average, a .511 slugging percentage, a .420 on-base percentage, 32 walks and 49 runs scored.
- Gonzalez led the team with a .381 average and a .437 on-base percentage. He was second with a .493 slugging percentage. Despite playing in 43 games with 37 starts, he was fifth on the team with 51 hits, sixth with 23 RBIs and nine doubles and seventh with 16 walks.
- Gonzalez and Hill join Kyle Davis and BJ Myers, who earned Freshman All-America accolades in 2015. It is the second time in program history that two Mountaineers earned All-America honors in back-to-back years.
- The first time it happened was in 2008-09, when Jedd Gyorko was recognized both seasons, and Tyler Kuhn was honored in 2008 and Vince Belnome in 2009.

Homegrown Talent

Four players on the 2017 roster hail from West Virginia. It is tied for the second-most represented state on the team, behind Texas (10)

WVU Fifth in Big 12 Preseason Poll

- West Virginia was voted to finish fifth in the 2017 Big 12 Conference baseball preseason coaches' poll.
- The preseason ranking is WVU's highest since joining the conference in 2013. The Mountaineers received 40 points, the most in their five years in the league.
- TCU was a unanimous selection to win the league with 64 points, while Oklahoma State was second with 54. Eight points separated the next three spots, as Texas Tech garnered 48 points to finish third, followed by Texas in fourth with 41 points and WVU in fifth, with 40.
- WVU also received one first place vote. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team.

Path to the Pros

Nineteen former Mountaineers played professional baseball in 2016, including five that played for WVU in 2016.

- Chad Donato and Blake Smith were selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, Donato in the 11th round by the Houston Astros and Smith in the 29th round by the Los Angeles Angels
- Ross Vance and Ray Guerrini signed free-agent contracts with the St. Louis Cardinals and Seattle Mariners, respectively, and KC Huth played in the American Association for the Joplin Blasters.
- WVU has had 14 draft selection in coach Randy Mazey's four seasons, the most draft picks in a four-year stretch in team history. At least two West Virginia players have been drafted in each of Mazey's four seasons. With the two MLB draft picks in 2016, there have been 84 Mountaineer draft selections since the first draft was held in 1965.
- Last year's list of professional players was headlined by Jedd Gyorko with the St. Louis Cardinals. A Morgantown native, Gyorko was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the second round of the 2010 Draft and has played in the Major Leagues since 2013. Last season, Gyorko's first in St. Louis, he led the Cardinals with 30 home runs while posting a .243 batting average.

Mazey is WVU's Newest Mr. 100

Coach Randy Mazey won his 100th game at WVU in the Mountaineers' 11-6 victory at Kansas on March 26. On May 6, Mazey won his 300th career game as the Mountaineers beat Texas, 11-2.

- Mazey is the fifth coach in program history to eclipse the 100-win mark and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons.
- Mazey joins Ira Errett Rodgers (1921-42, 46), Steve Harrick (1948-67), Dale Ramsburgh (1968-94) and Greg Van Zant (1995-2012) with at least 100 wins at WVU.
- Along with Mazey, only Van Zant won his 100th game in his fourth season. Harrick won his 100 game in his eighth, and Rodgers and Ramsburg reached the milestone in their ninth seasons at WVU.
- In his career, Mazey owns a 312-263-2 record, eclipsing the 300-win mark on May 6, 2016. Mazey is 125-103 at WVU.

Record Attendance in 2016

A total of 40,390 fans filled Monongalia County Ballpark in 2016, the highest home attendance in team history. For 30 home games, WVU averaged 1,346 fans per game, the second-highest average in program history. In the inaugural season at Monongalia County Ballpark in 2015, WVU averaged 1,507 fans per game.

Schedule Breakdown

The 56-game schedule is highlighted by 23 home games and games against four of the eight teams that made the 2016 NCAA College World Series.

The slate features a pair of games at the 2016 national champions, Coastal Carolina, and Big 12 home series against TCU and Texas Tech, both coming off College World Series appearances. WVU also will travel to Oklahoma State, another College World Series program from a year ago, and Tulane, which reached the Regional final, for a total of 14 games against 2016 NCAA Tournament teams.

"We have a very tough schedule, but I know our team will be up to the challenge," Mazey said. "I am really excited about this year's schedule. We'll have a lot of early road games, but we'll get to play the defending national champions twice, which is exciting for our team, and then we'll be at home a lot late in the year."

The 23-game home schedule at Monongalia County Ballpark includes games against reigning Big 12 regular season champion Texas Tech (May 5-7) and Big 12 Tournament champion TCU (April 14-16), as well as Oklahoma (April 28-30), Kansas (April 7-9), Pitt (May 16), Marshall (April 4) and Penn State (May 9). All but four home games, and every Big 12 game, will be played in April and May.

"I'm excited that we have some really good teams coming to Morgantown this season, including two that were in the College World Series last year," Mazey said. "Our fans played a big role in building a strong home field advantage at Monongalia County Ballpark last year, and I know they'll get to see some great baseball again this year."

Honoring the Mountaineers in 2016

2016 Awards Breakdown

The Mountaineers earned a record-number of conference and national awards throughout the 2016 season, recognizing WVU's performance both on the field and in the classroom.

- WVU collected a program-record 10 All-Big 12 honors. The list was headlined by Chad Donato, the fourth Mountaineer to earn All-Big 12 First Team accolades.
- Four Mountaineers were named to the Big 12 All-Tournament Team, the most in program history: KC Huth, Kyle Davis, Conner Dotson and Ross Vance
- West Virginia has earned 10 Big 12 weekly honors, the most in a season since WVU joined the Big 12 in 2013 and tied for the most of any school in the conference in 2016.
- WVU won all three Big 12 weekly awards on May 2, the first ever sweep of the Player, Pitcher and Newcomer of the Week awards by any Big 12 school.
- Jackson Cramer became just the fifth player in conference history to earn three Player of the Week accolades in a single season and the seventh to earn it in back-to-back weeks.
- Beginning on April 25, WVU earned at least one Big 12 award in four straight weeks.
- NCBWA Pitcher of the Week Chad Donato is the sixth Mountaineer in program history to earn national weekly honors from the NCBWA and the first to earn any national weekly honor since 2013.
- Twelve were named to the Academic All-Big 12 team, with five First Team honorees and another five named to the Rookie Team
- The Mountaineers added four WVU Student-Athlete of the Week accolades.

Season Preview By Charlie Healy

The West Virginia University baseball team has something to prove in 2017.

Coming off their best season since joining the Big 12 Conference and in the Randy Mazey era, the Mountaineers came agonizingly close to making the NCAA Tournament in 2016 for the first time since 1996.

The Mountaineers went 36-22, reached their first-ever Big 12 championship game, and finished the year as one of the nation's hottest teams, winning 17 of their last 21. However, WVU was listed as one of the first four teams out when the NCAA Tournament field was announced.

The mindset of playing with an edge and proving doubters wrong began on May 30, 2016, after the 64-team NCAA Tournament field was revealed and just three Big 12 teams were invited. WVU, which finished fourth in the Big 12, as well as the league, felt slighted. Oklahoma State, TCU and Texas Tech proceeded to prove the conference's doubters wrong as all three teams advanced all the way to the College World Series.

Fast forward to 2017, and Mazey and the Mountaineers know they have what it takes to end WVU's NCAA Tournament drought. Now, it's on them to prove everyone outside of Morgantown wrong.

"We have something to prove," Mazey said. "We continue to feel like we're doing well, but I don't think anybody outside of WVU thinks we're good enough to play in the postseason. Every day we take the field, we're out to prove to the rest of the country that we belong.

"This group needs to play with an edge and play like they're mad, and they need to be because there was a whole group of people last year who told them they weren't good enough. It's a pretty good sign going into this year that they are out there trying to prove to a lot of people how good they are."

That begins with embracing the process of a 56-game season. From the start of practice in the fall, the mindset was to focus on the process – training and competing to be the best every day.

From eating right and training hard every day to getting enough sleep, the 35 players on the roster are embracing that process. It helps that seven of nine starting position players return, along with three starting pitchers who have had plenty of Big 12 success and a strong corps of relievers in the bullpen.

Bolstering that group is the highest-rated recruiting class in program history.

"We've got guys back from last year who have had some success, and we've added some guys to that," Mazey said. "We've got some pretty good depth in the lineup that we can interchange guys and rest other guys when we need to. I'm pretty excited about the offense that we're going to be able to put out there."

The question marks, and the reason the Mountaineers are ready to prove people wrong, are that the missing pieces from last year's team all made an impact. Of the six major departures from a year ago, two were drafted and two more signed free agent contracts with Major League Baseball organizations last summer. In total, five of the six Mountaineers who saw extended playing time last year who did not return in 2017 played professionally last summer.

What the national experts don't see though, is how West Virginia has responded to those losses. Particularly, Mazey likes the offensive makeup of the 2017 Mountaineers.

"We've got a great mix. I think we have four or five guys who can hit double-digit homers on this team. Of the guys that don't, we have guys who can play some small ball. Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray and new center fielder Brandon White can really run, so that's a really neat mix. You look at Coastal Carolina last year, they won the national championship and that's what they did. A bunch of guys had a lot of homers, but they also were top 10 in the nation in sacrifice bunts too. I think we have that type of team offensively that we're going to be able to do that."

West Virginia hit .287 as a team last year, which ranked No. 3 in the Big 12 and was WVU's best average since joining the conference in 2013. Seven of nine starters and 11 position players return in 2017.

There aren't a lot of holes to fill in the starting lineup in the field. The newcomers add depth and bring plenty of success at the high school level.

"I like their energy and ability to help in spots where we needed help," Mazey said of the new faces on the roster. "We have a lot of guys back from last year, so we didn't need anyone to come in and just take over anywhere. The freshmen are going to get their chances."

WVU opponents listed in bold.

Just like with the bats and in the field, there is a mix of experience and fresh faces on the mound. West Virginia has 10 pitchers returning from a staff that ranked third in the Big 12 with a 4.07 ERA.

Despite losing ERA leader Chad Donato, saves leader Blake Smith and wins leader Ross Vance, who all signed with MLB clubs last summer, the pieces are there to fill those holes. That includes starters Conner Dotson, Michael Grove and BJ Myers, all of whom have had success in the Big 12.

West Virginia is gaining respect within the league. The Big 12's coaches voted WVU fifth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Mountaineers' best-ever preseason ranking, and the 40 points in the poll were also a program best.

From the wealth of returning position players to a strong corps of returning pitchers and a much-heralded recruiting class, there is plenty of reason for optimism at Monongalia County Ballpark.

It's a group that wants to be that first team from West Virginia to make the NCAA Tournament since 1996. Now, all they have to do is go out there and do it.

As the season begins on Friday, here's a position-by-position look at the 2017 Mountaineers:

PITCHING

The Mountaineer pitching staff will be led by returning starters Conner Dotson, Michael Grove and BJ Myers, who combined for 21 starts a season ago.

The trio has seen plenty of success in the Big 12 and all played crucial roles in WVU's strong finish to the 2016 season.

Dotson, a junior, pitched in 20 games with four starts and tied for the team lead with seven wins. He was 3-0 as a starter, including a dominant postseason performance in a win over Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship to send WVU to its first ever Big 12 title game. Dotson was named to the Big 12 All-Tournament Team.

Also a junior, Myers made 17 appearances with 10 starts in 2016 after earning Freshman All-America honors in 2015. Myers won five games as a sophomore and pitched 4.2 strong innings in relief at the Big 12 Championship in WVU's win over No. 5 Texas Tech.

Grove, a sophomore, made a big impact as a freshman, earning All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honors. A Wheeling, West Virginia, native, he made seven starts, posting a 2.70 ERA.

"BJ, Michael and Conner are three veteran guys who have been here," Mazey said. "I call Grove a veteran just because he pitched so much down the stretch. Those guys could be as good as anybody out there, I feel pretty good about that. Early on, when pitch counts aren't as high, you have to use a lot more people but when those guys settle in and start doing their thing, I feel really good about flipping them the ball."

After Dotson, Grove and Myers, there are plenty of options. Eight returning arms, and as many as nine newcomers, will be in the bullpen. Two key pieces, a fourth starter and a closer, have to be development.

Among the returners, those options could be senior Jackson Sigman, junior Shane Ennis and sophomores Tanner Campbell and Braden Zarbnisky.

Sigman made 20 appearances last year, including key stops in each game of a three-game sweep of Texas. Zarbnisky was pivotal as a starter and a reliever, making 12 appearances and four starts. Ennis appeared in eight games, while Campbell made five starts.

Freshmen Alek Manoah, Carter Camp and Isaiah Kearns have shown promise during the preseason.

"Beyond our starters, we're going to have to piece it together, try to find a fourth starter, someone who can finish the game at the end," Mazey said. "Alek Manoah has stepped up and looks like he could finish some games, Braden Zarbnisky has thrown really well, so he'll be in the mix somewhere. A couple of freshmen, including Carter Camp and Isaiah Kearns have thrown really well. We have options, but it's a little scary when guys haven't proven themselves and had success. You have to learn how to have success at this level."

The pitching staff is where the Mountaineers saw their biggest losses, headlined by Chad Donato, Blake Smith and Ross Vance.

Donato and Smith were drafted, while Vance signed a free agent contract. Donato was drafted in the 11th round by the Houston Astros, Smith was selected in the 29th round by the Los Angeles Angels and Vance signed with the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

Donato made 15 starts and led the team with a 3.27 earned run average, while Vance made 13 starts and had a team-high-tying seven wins. Smith, who made 25 appearances, had eight saves, second-most in program history.

West Virginia's 13 saves rank No. 2 in the WVU record books. Manoah and Zarbnisky have led the charge to earn the closing spot early in the season.

"Could be Alek Manoah, a big freshman from Florida," Mazey said. It could be Braden Zarbnisky, who had days where he showed a high-level breaking ball, a swing-and-a-miss breaking ball. You know at the back end you have to have somebody who can make batters swing and miss. The closer could be by committee early on until somebody wins it, but we have a couple of capable guys back there."

INFIELD

The Mountaineers return every starter on the infield. Despite featuring one senior and three sophomores, the foursome return experience, solid defense and offensive potential.

"We're very athletic in the infield," Mazey said "We have some options, with guys moving in and out. We feel really good about our team defensively. With Cole Austin, Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray and Jackson Cramer, plus guys like Marques Inman, Alek Manoah, TJ Lake and Kevin Brophy, we have different options."

Jackson Cramer, one of two seniors on the 2017 roster, leads the infield.

Cramer played in all but two games at first base last season, leading the team with 45 RBI and a .535 slugging percentage, while finishing second with nine home runs, 60 hits, 14 doubles and 32 walks. He was third with a .300 batting average and 34 runs scored. He earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors and was a three-time Big 12 Player of the Week.

Cramer also had a 10-game hitting streak and opened the season reaching base in 50 consecutive games, 30 games coming in 2016 and 20 carrying over from 2015.

"Jackson had to be one of the hottest hitters in the nation the second half of last year," Mazey said. "I think a lot of it had to do with when that streak ended, nobody was asking him about it or talking about it and he just went out and started hitting. He could not have cared less if he got a hit or not and ended up getting a lot more because of it. If he just relaxes, goes out and plays, he's the guy in our lineup that the other teams look at him and say, 'wow is that guy still there?' Jackson has been in the middle of their lineup for three straight years so, he's got a chance to have a really good year for us if he just relaxes."

The rest of the starters on the infield are sophomores, but they do not lack experience.

At second base, Kyle Gray started 16 games as a freshman and had 35 starts in the outfield. He hit .270 with 47 hits, 22 RBI and showed his speed with a team-high 10 stolen bases.

Jimmy Galusky mans shortstop. The Arthurdale, West Virginia, native was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team and started 57 games at shortstop as a freshman. He hit .282 with 53 hits and 17 RBI and was second on the team with five game-winning hits.

"Jimmy is probably the best shortstop in the league," Mazey said. "He had the fewest errors of, I think, any shortstop in the Big 12 and ended up somewhere around .270-.280. If Jimmy could just get a little better offensively every year, by the time he leaves, he's got a chance to be as good as any shortstop that's played here."

Cole Austin is expected to man the hot corner. He made 39 starts as a freshman, 27 at second base and 12 at third. Austin had 32 hits in 41 games with four home runs, six doubles and seven stolen bases in eight attempts.

Austin was one of three players with at least 10 starts at third base. The list also features junior Kyle Davis and sophomore Ivan Gonzalez. Davis is expected to play primarily in left, and Gonzalez will take over the primary responsibilities behind the plate.

"We've tried a couple different things," Mazey said of the third base position. "Cole Austin has spent time over there and has really good hands and likes it over there, so that might be a spot for him. On days when Ivan doesn't catch, he can always go out there. He went out there last year, literally not having practiced there, and looked like Brooks Robinson on some days. We can juggle that spot a little bit more than the others."

With Cramer, Gray, Galusky and Austin, along with capable backups, the WVU infield has its sights set on a big year.

OUTFIELD

In the outfield, a pair of star-studded corner outfielders return, while a center fielder needs to be developed.

Right field is anchored by Darius Hill. He started all 58 games and earned Freshman All-America honors after leading the Mountaineers with 75 hits, 20 doubles and a .511 slugging percentage in 2016.

Kyle Davis is in left field. Also a Freshman All-American, in 2015, Davis led WVU with 10 home runs, 39 walks and 52 runs scored and hit .280 as a sophomore in 2016. Davis started 56 games last year, splitting time between third base, left field and designated hitter.

"Kyle has turned himself into a really good left fielder so he's going to stay out there and he's turned into a well-rounded player," Mazey said. "The last couple years it's been mostly offense. His defense was okay, but now, through his own work ethic and to his credit, he has rounded his game out pretty well."

In center field, Mazey has a couple of options. One is sophomore Zarbnisky, who started 14 games in the outfield last year, and the other is freshman Brandon White.

"Kyle Davis and Darius Hill are middle-of-the-lineup guys who have turned themselves into really good outfielders," Mazey said. "They're going to hopefully hold down the corners, and we have some options in center field. One is Braden Zarbnisky, who played there last year. Brandon White has really stepped up and shown that he can be a great defender out there. We have options and can play with some different lineups and get different guys in the game. It's just knowing which ones to put out there at the right times."

CATCHER

Catcher is a position where the Mountaineers lost a lot, but very well might gain just as much.

Ivan Gonzalez (who went by Ivan Vera last year), returns as a sophomore after a Freshman All-America campaign in 2016. He led the team with a .381 batting average and a .437 on-base percentage recorded 51 hits, 23 RBI and nine doubles.

Gonzalez came to WVU as a catcher and started eight games. He was a backup to junior Ray Guerrini, but his hot bat forced Mazey to put him in the lineup. That's where third base came in, a position Gonzalez hadn't played in years.

Gonzalez started the final 20 games of the year at third, allowing Guerrini to remain behind the plate. After Guerrini signed a free-agent contract with the Seattle Mariners organization last summer, Gonzalez went back to his natural position.

"Ivan has really caught and thrown well this spring," Mazey said. "He's swinging the bat well. He's won that job hands down, but Nick Denicola and Chase Illig, we need to find ways to get them in the game. They're freshmen backing him up. We just have to pick our spots to get them experience."
