Offensive Analysis

- ▶ Breaking down the West Virginia offensive numbers for the 2014 season, the Mountaineers ran a total of 1,097 plays, 563 coming on the ground and 534 through the air. The rushing game totaled 2,376 yards for an average of 4.2 yards per carry and 18 touchdowns. The passing attack totaled 4,121 yards, 26 touchdowns and an average of 12.1 yards per completion.
- ▶ Combine the two and the Mountaineers turned in 6,497 yards of total offense, and 44 offensive touchdowns for an average of 5.9 yards per play, and an average of 33.5 points per game.
- ▶ Deeper analysis shows that the Mountaineer offense gained 125 first downs by the run and 175 via the pass. On average, West Virginia totaled 182.8 yards per game on the ground, 317.0 yards per game passing and 499.8 yards of total offense.

30 Is Enough

- ▶ Dating back to 1980, the Mountaineers hold a 174-17-1 record when scoring 30 or more points in a game. During the 1990s, the Mountaineers were 42-4 when scoring 30 or more points in a contest and were 40-2-1 in the '80s when reaching that mark. WVU is 92-12 since 2000 when scoring 30 points or more in a contest.

Scoring 40 or more Points

- ▶ Under Dana Holgorsen, West Virginia is 14-3 when scoring 40 or more points. Since 2000, the Mountaineers are 46-3 when hitting the 40-point plateau, and WVU is 177-3 all-time when scoring at least 40 points in a game.

Against Ranked Teams

- ▶ Beginning with a 27-0 loss to Fordham on Oct. 18, 1941, West Virginia has played 143 games against nationally ranked teams. Of those, 41 have been Mountaineer victories.
- ▶ Since 2001, WVU has posted 19 victories over ranked teams.

Game No. 1: Alabama 33, West Virginia 23

ATLANTA, Ga. (Aug. 30, 2014) - West Virginia went into the Chick-fil-A Kickoff game against No. 2 Alabama as more than a 25-point underdog, but the Mountaineers held their own in a 33-23 win by the Crimson Tide.

Missed opportunities hurt both sides, specially West Virginia, but the Mountaineers refused to roll over for the Tide.

WVU senior receiver Kevin White was spectacular on the national stage with nine catches for 143 yards and one touchdown. The totals were a career high for White and the second 100-yard receiving effort of his career.

West Virginia quarterback Clint Trickett got the afternoon started on the right foot, engineering a 14-play, 79-yard scoring drive on the game's opening possession. The drive stalled at the Alabama three, and kicker Josh Lambert put the first points on the board of the 2014 season with a 20-yard field goal.

Alabama answered with the next 10 points behind a 47-yard field goal from Adam Griffith and a 15-yard touchdown run by T.J. Yeldon for a 10-3 Tide advantage.

Trickett was sharp for most of the day and brought the Mountaineers back to tie the game at 10-10, when he hit White for a 19-yard scoring toss in the corner of the end zone to finish off an impressive nine-play, 75- yard drive.

The final 2:00 of the half was a flurry of action as Alabama regained the lead with 1:57 left, when Yeldon scored his second touchdown.

However, West Virginia answered right back with a 100-yard kickoff return from Mario Alford to knot the game again at 17-17. The only problem with Alford's score was that he left too much time on the clock (1:31), and Alabama capitalized.

The Tide drove 50 yards in the final 1:31 and took a 20-17 lead at the half behind a 41-yard field goal from Griffith.

Third quarter action saw the Tide add a Derrick Henry 19-yard touchdown run to open up a 10-point lead at 27-17.

Once again, just like in the first half, Alabama had a chance to break the game open, but the Mountaineers would not go away. A game of field goals between the two kickers ensued the rest of the way, as the two teams combined for four field goals in the final quarter and a half.

WVU answered with a 42-yard Lambert field goal to cut the deficit to seven, 27-20, with 4:59 left in the third.

Alabama answered with the final score of the quarter coming at the 1:27 mark as Griffith converted from 27-yards away.

West Virginia could not take advantage of a

Kevin White

Daryl Worley interception in the fourth quarter, and several dropped passes would come back to haunt them and to end scoring opportunities.

The Mountaineers put their final points on the board with 13:37 left in the game, on Lambert's 41-yard field goal, which gave him three for the game, and closed WVU's deficit to seven at 30-23.

But Griffith added his fourth field goal in the game with 8:07 left. His 45-yard effort ended the game's scoring, gave him a 4-3 advantage over Lambert in the field goal department and put the final score at 33-23 in favor of the Crimson Tide.

Along with White's impressive numbers for West Virginia, Trickett was strong with 365 yards passing on 29 completions. Wendell Smallwood added 73 yards receiving and Jordan Thompson had five catches for 62 yards.

A trio of defenders led the Mountaineer defense behind Karl Joseph's 18 tackles, followed by 11 stops each from Worley and Nick Kwaitkoski.

Crimson Tide quarterback Blake Sims finished with 250 yards passing, while Yeldon and Henry led the ground game with a 126 and 113 yards. Amari Cooper was Alabama's top receiver with 12 catches for 130 yards. Landon Collins led the Tide defense with eight stops.

It was the first meeting ever between the two schools, and a crowd of 70,502 packed the Georgia Dome for the meeting between teams from the SEC and Big 12 Conferences.

Game No. 2: West Virginia 54, Towson 0

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Sept. 6, 2014) - West Virginia gained its first win of the 2014 season with a 54-0 shutout of Towson in front of 56,414 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

WVU's 54 points were its most since the final regular-season game of 2012, and the shutout marked the first by a Mountaineer defense since the opening game of the 2010 season.

Senior quarterback Clint Trickett was impressive with only three incomplete passes in the first half and five total for the game. Trickett's final numbers stood at 35-of-40 for 348 yards and two touchdowns. The 348 passing yards marked the third straight 300-plus passing performance for Trickett dating back to the final game of the 2013 season.

The blowout win saw the Mountaineers run 33 more plays than the Tigers, enabling the home team to win the first-down battle by a 33-7 count.

The Mountaineers started strong with their foot on the gas and never looked back. The game's opening possession saw West Virginia march 68 yards in 13 plays to grab a 7-0 lead, behind a Wendell Smallwood one-yard rush.

Before the quarter ended, West Virginia was back on the board with a 19-yard field goal by Josh Lambert.

In the second quarter, the Mountaineers added 21 points to take a 31-0 lead at the half. Tailback Rushel Shell punched in a two-yard run for a score at the 9:04 mark, which was his first as a Mountaineer.

West Virginia's next possession ended with a one-yard scoring toss from Trickett to receiver Mario Alford. Highlighting the 64-yard drive was a 25-yard completion from Trickett to Smallwood.

The Mountaineers closed the first half scoring with just under a minute to play, when Trickett rushed in from five yards out to finish off a 55-yard drive.

Despite the big lead, West Virginia refused to let up. After holding Towson on its first drive of the third quarter, Trickett went to the air again and found junior receiver Jordan Thompson for a 19-yard touchdown pass. The 75-yard scoring drive took just six plays and upped the WVU lead to 38-0.

That advantage increased to 40-0 before the end of the third, when defensive lineman Shaq Riddick sacked Tiger quarterback Connor Frazier in the end zone for a safety at the 3:59 mark.

The Mountaineers played many players in the blowout victory, and one of those was highly touted true freshman quarterback William Crest, Jr. Crest gave the Mountaineers a 47-0 lead with 12:04 left on his four-yard run, as he engineered an 11-play, 59-yard drive.

West Virginia finished out the scoring with 6:27 remaining, as tailback Andrew Buie scored on a three-yard touchdown run. Buie made the most of his playing opportunity with nine rushes in the second half for 70 yards with a long carry of 26. Buie finished with a 7.8-yard per carry average.

In the game, a total of 10 players ran the ball for West Virginia, and 11 caught at least one pass. Aside from Trickett's outstanding performance, Shell finished with 71 yards rushing and a 5.1-yards per carry average.

Receiver Kevin White hauled in his second straight 100-yard receiving game of the season with 10 catches for 101 yards. Aside from his touchdown catch, Thompson added 52 yards to the receiving totals.

West Virginia's defensive effort was led by senior Wes Tonkery with five tackles, followed by Isaiah Bruce with four.

Towson's rough day at the office showed in its individual numbers. Darius Victor topped the Tiger rushing attack with 29 yards. Andre Dessenberg had 30 yards receiving, and the Tiger defense was led by Donnell Lewis and Chris Carpenter, who combined for 27 tackles.

Final numbers in the game showed West Virginia with 251 yards rushing and 355 passing for an impressive 606 yards of total offense.

Towson's final numbers stood at 42 yards rushing and 80 passing for 122 yards of total offense.

The 54-point margin of victory was the most for the Mountaineers since an 80-7 victory over Rutgers in 2001.

The win gave West Virginia an 87-18-6 all-time record in season home openers, while Coach Dana Holgorsen improved to 4-0 in home openers.

The Mountaineers are now 15-0 all-time against schools in the FCS.

Game No. 3: West Virginia 40, Maryland 37

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (Sept. 13, 2014) - Josh Lambert's 47-yard field goal as time expired proved to be the game-winner, as West Virginia won a wild game at Maryland by a 40-37 count.

The Mountaineers turned in an offensive showcase with 108 total plays and 694 yards of total offense. Leading the way was senior quarterback Clint Trickett with 37 completions on 49 attempts for 511 yards and four touchdowns. The passing yards were the second-most in school history, and the performance earned Trickett the Walter Camp and Athlon National Player of the Week honors.

Joining Trickett in the offensive fun was senior receiver Kevin White with a career-high 13 catches for 216 yards, were the third-most yards ever for a WVU receiver. Teammate Mario Alford finished with 11 catches for 131 yards and two touchdowns.

As it turned out, West Virginia needed every yard, catch and score it could get against the Terrapins, who would not go away and fought from behind for most of the day.

The Mountaineers grabbed the lead on the game's opening possession, when Rushel Shell's one-yard run ended a 75-yard drive. The big play in the drive was a 50-yard completion from Trickett to Wendell Smallwood.

The Maryland deficit expanded to 14-0, before the end of the first quarter, as Trickett connected with Alford for a 43-yard touchdown pass to put the finishing touches on an 80-yard drive.

The Terps cracked the scoreboard at the 12:33 mark of the second quarter on Brad Craddock's 46-yard field goal.

Trickett answered the Maryland score with a 44-yard touchdown strike to Kevin White for a 21-3 WVU lead. After Maryland added another Craddock field goal (41 yards), West Virginia answered again with an 89-yard drive that ended with a 36-yard touchdown pass from Trickett to Alford, and the Mountaineers found themselves with a 28-6 lead with 6:09 left in the opening half.

Maryland would not go away, and finished the half on a strong note with a 77-yard pass, from quarterback C.J. Brown to receiver Stefon Diggs, cutting the deficit to 28-13.

With just 40 seconds left in the half, the Terps struck again with a 26-yard touchdown reception by Jacquille Veii, and despite posting 382 yards of total offense, West Virginia led by only eight, 28-20, at the intermission.

Maryland's run back into the game continued on the first play of the third quarter. Brown turned a simple quarterback rush into a 75-yard Terp touchdown, and with 14:46 left in the third, what was once a commanding WVU lead was now just 28-27.

Kevin White

Special teams then got the Mountaineers jump started as Jarrod Harper blocked a Terp punt at the 6:30 mark for a safety, putting the Mountaineers up 30-27.

On the ensuing free kick, Trickett made the most of the possession with a 56-yard drive and an 11-yard scoring pass to Daikiel Shorts to spread the advantage out to 37-27.

Maryland took advantage of a fumbled punt and added a 30-yard Craddock field goal with 11:14 remaining, before tying the game at 37-37 on William Likely's 69-yard punt return for a touchdown at the 9:43 mark.

The defenses took over as each team was forced to punt twice, before West Virginia got the last possession with 2:35 left. Starting at their own five-yard line, the Mountaineers drove 65 yards, highlighted by a 17-yard Shorts reception, a 13-yard catch and 10-yard run by tailback Dustin Garrison to move the chains and set up Lambert's 47-yard heroics.

At one point, Maryland was 4-of-5 on third-down conversions and finished the game 4-of-15 on third down, thanks to a Mountaineer defense that stiffened when it had to. Linebacker Nick Kwiatkoski led the effort with 12 tackles.

For Maryland, Brown rushed for 161 yards and passed for 241. Diggs topped the Terp receivers with 127 yards. Sean Davis led the Terp defense with 13 stops.

Final totals showed West Virginia with 183 yards on the ground and 511 passing for 694 yards, while the Terrapins finished with 163 yards on the ground and 284 through the air for 447 total yards.

With the win, West Virginia improved to 27-22-2 all-time against Maryland, 13-11-1 all-time in College Park and 1-0 against the Terps when they are members of the Big Ten.

Game No. 4: No. 4/4 Oklahoma 45, West Virginia 33

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Sept. 20, 2014) - No. 4/4 Oklahoma rallied from a 24-24 tie at halftime to defeat West Virginia, 45-33, in front of a FOX national television audience and a sold out crowd at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Sooners outscored the Mountaineers 21-9 in the second half to break open the offensive shootout. Led by the rushing of tailback Samaje Perine, who finished with 242 yards and four touchdowns, the Sooners pounded their way to 301 total yards on the ground, and the Mountaineers had no answer for the Sooner ground attack.

Oklahoma scored first, when Michael Hunnicutt's 42-yard field goal gave the Sooners a 3-0 lead with 4:20 left in the first quarter.

The Mountaineers got the stadium rocking just before the end of the quarter, when quarterback Clint Trickett connected on a 68-yard touchdown strike to receiver Kevin White, giving the Mountaineers a 7-3 advantage heading into an explosive second quarter. Both teams combined for 38 points in the quarter with each answering the other's punches.

A career long 54-yard field goal by WVU kicker Josh Lambert widened the lead to 10-3. The kick was the second-longest field goal in stadium history. The Sooners responded with a 75-yard drive in which Durrone Neal on a reverse threw a four-yard touchdown to Sooner sophomore quarterback Trevor Knight to tie the game at 10-10 with 8:58 left in the half.

West Virginia answered just over a minute later, when Trickett put the exclamation point on a 75-yard drive with a 30-yard strike to Mario Alford, putting the Mountaineers back in front by a 17-10 count.

The fireworks in the quarter were far from over as Oklahoma tied the game at the 3:09 mark on Perine's first touchdown. His two-yard run ended a 75-yard drive and tied the game at 17-17.

The Mountaineers took a 24-17 lead with just 1:20 left in the half on tailback Rushel Shell's five-yard rush. Just when the home folks thought the half's scoring was over, Oklahoma's Alex Ross took the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown. Instead of a 24-17 WVU lead at the half, the game was tied and OU got the ball first to start the third quarter.

Seven plays and 75-yards later, Oklahoma grabbed the lead for good on the first possession of the second half. Perine scored touchdown No. 2 with a nine-yard rush, giving the Sooners a 31-24 advantage.

West Virginia added Lambert's second field goal, (31 yards), at the 6:28 mark to pull within four at 31-27, but the Sooner ground attack continued to churn out the yards and keep the ball away from the WVU offense.

Touchdown No. 3 for Perine came with 1:00 left in the third, as he powered in from five-yards away, giving the Sooners a 38-7 lead heading into the final stanza.

Kevin White

Who else but Perine would close out the scoring for Oklahoma in the fourth quarter as his 19-yard run upped the Sooner advantage to 45-27 with 4:30 left.

West Virginia added a late Dreamius Smith touchdown run of 11 yards with just over two minutes left in the game to put the final score at 45-33 in favor of the Sooners.

West Virginia got strong offensive performances from its big three. Trickett finished with 376 passing yards and two scores, while White totaled 10 catches for 173 yards. Alford joined White in the 100-yard receiving category with seven catches for 101 yards. Karl Joseph led the West Virginia defense with 13 tackles, 10 of which were solo stops.

Aside from his final rushing yards and score, Perine's big day included a 7.1 yards per carry average, and he was joined by Ross, who turned in 7.0 yards per carry.

Knight ended his day with 16 completions for 205 yards. Sterling Shepard caught six of those Knight passes for 101 yards, and punter Jed Barnett keep the field position in OU's favor for most of the night with a 48.0 yards per punt average and a long of 70 yards.

Final totals showed WVU with 137 yards on the ground and 376 through the air for 513 yards. OU totaled 301 yards rushing and 209 passing for 510 total yards. Despite only running five more plays, the Sooners keep the Mountaineer offense off the field by holding onto the ball nearly eight minutes longer.

The win gave the Sooners a 3-0 series advantage over WVU in all-time Big 12 play, and a 5-2 advantage in overall games played.

Game No. 5: West Virginia 33, Kansas 14

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Oct. 4, 2014) - West Virginia secured win No. 3 of the 2014 season with a 33-14 Homecoming victory over Kansas.

The win upped the WVU record to 3-2 on the season and evened its Big 12 record at 1-1. Kansas played the game under interim head coach Clint Bowen, after former head coach Charlie Weiss was dismissed just six days earlier.

Kansas defeated West Virginia a year ago, and the Mountaineers knew it was important to get off to a fast start, and that's just what they did by scoring 16 first quarter points.

The Mountaineers took the game's first possession 40 yards, and came away with a 3-0 lead on kicker Josh Lambert's 42-yard field goal.

That was just the start for Lambert, as his leg would be used often. The sophomore kicker finished the day with 15 total points and added his second field goal at the 7:50 mark of the first, when he hit from 25-yards out. That field goal ended a nine-play, 59-yard drive.

Field goal No. 3 for Lambert came just over 1:30 later, ending a five-play, 26-yard drive with a 43-yarder.

After another stop by the West Virginia defense, the Mountaineers got on the scoreboard with a touchdown with just 29 seconds left in the first. Quarterback Clint Trickett connected on a 63-yard touchdown strike to receiver Kevin White, giving the Mountaineers a 16-0 lead. The touchdown to White was West Virginia's second longest play from scrimmage in 2014. Trickett and White also hold the longest on the season at 68 yards, which went for a score against Oklahoma.

The Mountaineers had three scoring chances in the second quarter and converted on two. Lambert had a 47-yard attempt blocked, before tailback Rushel Shell scored on a one-yard scoring run that gave the Mountaineers a 23-0 advantage, and culminating a 60-yard drive in just six plays. The key play was a 39-yard completion from Trickett to receiver Mario Alford.

As the half ended, Lambert kicked the second-longest field goal of his career, as his fourth in the first half was good from 53-yards out, giving West Virginia a 26-0 advantage at the intermission. Just one game earlier against Oklahoma, Lambert hit for his career-best of 54 yards.

The West Virginia defense was strong in the first half, holding the Jayhawks to just 42 yards rushing and 42 passing for 84 total yards and seven punts.

Kansas got on the scoreboard at the 4:18 mark of the third quarter by taking advantage of a fumbled punt to gain possession at the WVU 18-yard line. Corey Avery's four-yard rush cut the Jayhawk deficit to 26-7.

However, any momentum Kansas gained was lost just 14 seconds later, when Alford returned the ensuing kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown and a 33-7 WVU lead. It was Alford's second kickoff return for a score of the season, and he became the first WVU player to pull off the feat since Tavon Austin in 2011. Alford also became just the fourth Mountaineer in school history to return two kickoffs for a score in a season.

The Jayhawks ended the game's scoring with 2:23 left, when Nick Harwell returned a punt 76 yards for a touchdown.

White finished with six catches for 132 yards and a score. It marked the fifth straight 100-yard receiving performance for White and tied the school record held by Stedman Bailey. Trickett finished with 302 yards passing, while Shell turned in his first 100-yard rushing performance as a Mountaineer with 113 yards on 21 carries.

The outstanding defensive play for WVU continued in the second half, as Kansas finished with just 176 total yards. Linebacker Nick Kwiatkoski led the effort with seven tackles and two TFLs

Avery led the Jayhawks with 58 yards rushing, while Nigel King had four receptions for 52 yards. Quarterbacks Michael Cummings and Montell Cozart split the playing time and totaled 111 yards on 13 completions. The Jayhawk defense was led by Isaiah Johnson with nine stops

Final totals showed West Virginia with a solid 255 yards rushing and 302 passing for 557 yards. Kansas' 176 total yards broken down showed 111 passing and just 65 yards on the ground against a stingy Mountaineer defense that forced the Jayhawks to punt a WVU opponent record 14 times.

With the win, West Virginia improved to 3-1 all-time against the Jayhawks and 2-1 in Big 12 play.

Game No. 6: West Virginia 37, Texas Tech 34

LUBBOCK, Texas (Oct. 11, 2014) - For the second time in 2014, and third for his career, West Virginia kicker Josh Lambert connected on a game-winning field goal in the final seconds, lifting the Mountaineers to a 37-34 come-from-behind road victory at Texas Tech.

Trailing by 14 points with just 7:32 remaining, the Mountaineers scored on their final three possessions, while coming up with big defensive stops to stun the Red Raiders in front of 58,502 at Jones AT&T Stadium.

In the win, West Virginia posted two 100-yard rushers and two 100-yard receivers for the first time in school history.

Fans expected to see plenty of offense from the two teams, and they were not disappointed. The Mountaineers scored on their opening drive for the fifth time this season, when Lambert hit the first of his three field goals as his 42-yarder gave WVU a 3-0 lead.

The Red Raiders answered with two scores before the end of the quarter to take a 14-3 advantage. Tech's first score came at the 3:05 mark, when Davis Webb connected with Devin Lauderdale for a 34-yard touchdown strike.

Webb and Lauderdale hooked up again at the 1:14 mark, this time for 76 yards, as Tech took the 11-point lead into the second quarter.

WVU's Rushel Shell stopped Tech's 14-point run with a touchdown early in the second. Shell's 12-yard scamper ended a nine-play, 75-yard drive to cut the WVU deficit to 14-10.

Texas Tech ended the scoring in the first half at the 11:13 mark, when Webb and Jakeem Grant hooked up for a 43-yard pass play. Both defenses stiffened the rest of the way, and the Red Raiders took a 21-10 advantage into the locker room.

WVU used a 38-yard field goal by Lambert to pull within 21-13 with 8:03 left in the third.

Texas Tech then drove 71 yards before a strong defensive stand forced them to settle for a 21-yard field goal by Ryan Bustin. The Mountaineer defense came up big again in the quarter, when Tech was in good field position after recovering a West Virginia fumble. However, the defense stiffened and forced the Red Raiders to settle for a 25-yard Bustin field goal.

Those two defensive stops proved pivotal as Tech had a chance to break open the game but could not. WVU quarterback Clint Trickett ended the third quarter by connecting with receiver Jordan Thompson for a 56-yard touchdown, putting the score at 27-20 in favor of Tech heading into the fourth.

The Red Raiders seemed to put the game away with 7:32 remaining on a 69-yard touchdown run by Justin Stockton. Despite trailing 34-20, the Mountaineers would not go away. Instead, WVU answered under 2:00 later with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Trickett to Kevin White.

Another defensive stop gave the ball back to Trickett, and he drove the offense 78 yards in just seven plays to tie the game on Shell's one-yard run with 2:02 left in the game.

Plenty of time remained for Texas Tech, but the West Virginia defense came up big with yet another stop, giving the Mountaineers the ball back with 52 seconds left.

Trickett calmly took the offense 42 yards to get within Lambert's range, and the sophomore converted on a career-long 55-yard field goal to give WVU the comeback win. The 55-yarder tied the longest in school history and marked the longest road field goal ever by a WVU kicker.

Trickett finished with 301 yards passing, while White marked a school-record sixth straight 100-yard receiving performance with 123 yards. Thompson joined White with 109 yards receiving, and the Mountaineer running game was led by Wendell Smallwood (123 yards) and Shell (110 yards). Leading the defense was Nick Kwiatkoski with 11 tackles.

Texas Tech was led by Webb with 348 passing yards and three touchdowns. DeAndre Washington totaled 132 yards rushing, while Lauderdale caught three passes for 112 yards. The Red Raider defense was paced by Keenon Ward with 16 tackles.

Final totals showed West Virginia with 249 yards rushing, 301 passing for 550 yards, which gave the Mountaineers a school-record fifth straight game with 500 yards of total offense. Tech totaled 217 rushing and 348 passing for 565 total yards.

The win evened the series with Texas Tech at 2-2 and gave WVU its first win over the Red Raiders in Big 12 play.

Game No. 7: West Virginia 41, No. 4/4 Baylor 27

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Oct. 18, 2014) - West Virginia put together its best defensive performance of the season and knocked off No. 4 Baylor, 41-27, before a sellout crowd at Milan Puskar Stadium.

Tony Gibson's defense held the potent Baylor offense to just 95 yards rushing (24 at the half) and 223 yards passing. The Mountaineers sacked Baylor quarterback Bryce Petty four times and came up with 10 tackles for a loss of 45 yards in the impressive performance.

Slowing down the Bears' offense was the goal, but the Mountaineers did more than slow them down. Gibson's defense was able to match Baylor's intensity and at times frustrated the Bears, who turned in a Big 12 and Milan Puskar Stadium record 18 penalties for 215 yards.

Meanwhile on offense, Baylor simply could not guard West Virginia receiver Kevin White as the Bears had five pass interference penalties called on White's defender that resulted in automatic first downs for the Mountaineers.

White finished with eight catches for 132 yards and two touchdowns and continues to lead the nation and Big 12 in receiving. The 100-yard receiving effort extended White's streak to a nation's leading seven straight games with 100 yards or more receiving.

Also in the game, White became just the fifth Mountaineer in school history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season, and he did so in just seven games.

Any hopes West Virginia had in starting fast were quickly diminished as a sack of quarterback Clint Trickett caused a fumble, which was recovered by Baylor at the WVU seven-yard line.

One play later, Petty connected with receiver Corey Coleman for a seven-yard score, and the Bears had a 7-0 lead just barely a minute into the game.

Most would have thought that the Baylor rout was on, but not in 2014 as this West Virginia squad would have none of that talk.

West Virginia answered just two minutes later, when Trickett hit White for a 36-yard touchdown pass to bring the crowd back into the game and tie the score at 7-7.

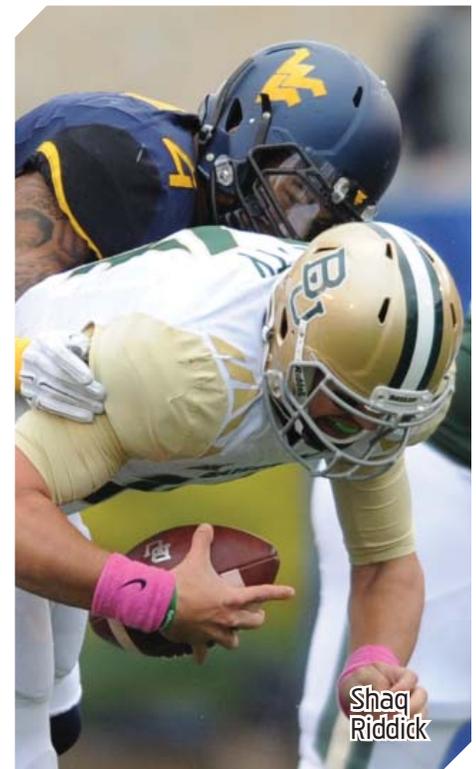

Baylor kicker Chris Callahan added two field goals before the quarter ended. His 38-yarder ended a 41-yard drive, and his 34-yarder was set up by an interception of Trickett.

Holding Baylor to two field goals and not touchdowns was key for the Mountaineer defense, which gained confidence and swagger as the day went on.

Second-quarter action was all West Virginia, as the Mountaineers outscored the Bears by 10 points.

West Virginia took its first lead at the 10:56 mark, when tailback Andrew Buie rushed in from one-yard out to end a 74-yard drive.

The Bears went back on top, 21-20, with 8:25 left in the half on Petty's 63-yard pass play to Antwan Goodley. But once again, the Mountaineers took the Baylor punch and never flinched.

WVU regained the lead, 21-20, on a nine-yard scamper from running back Dreamius Smith, before going up 24-20 on Josh Lambert's 54-yard field goal as the half came to an end. The kick was Lambert's fourth of 50 yards or more on the season and fifth of his career. The kick also gave him four straight games with a successful field goal of 50 yards or more.

Lambert came back in the third quarter with a 24-yard field goal, giving West Virginia a 27-20 advantage with 9:28 left. But Baylor struck for a huge 92-yard drive that ended with a Shock Linwood one-yard run to tie the game at 27-27 heading into the fourth.

The Baylor contest marked the third Top 5 opponent for WVU in seven games. While they came close in the previous two, Coach Dana Holgorsen talked to his team in the week leading up to the game about finishing and that's exactly what the Mountaineers did.

Trickett went to White for a 12-yard scoring toss at the 11:36 mark of the fourth to give the Mountaineers a 34-27 lead. White's beautiful one-handed grab ended a 68-yard drive in just four plays.

Then with 7:35 left in the game, Trickett went to the air again and found Mario Alford for a 39-yard touchdown pass, giving WVU a 14-point advantage, and the defense kept the Bears silent the rest of the way.

Trickett's 322 yards passing marked the seventh straight game that he has surpassed 300-yards passing, and the win over No. 4 was WVU's highest since 2008, and highest at home since 2003.

STILLWATER, Okla. (Oct. 25, 2014) - No. 22/25 West Virginia jumped out to a quick 14-0 first quarter lead and never looked back in defeating Oklahoma State, 34-10, in front of a Homecoming crowd of 59,124 at Boone Pickens Stadium.

Oklahoma State took the game's first possession from its own 25 to the WVU 38-yard line. Facing a 4th-and-4, the Cowboys failed on a surprising fourth-down attempt, which put the Mountaineer offense in good field position.

Quarterback Clint Trickett quickly took advantage of the good starting position, as he directed a five-play scoring drive that ended with a 19-yard touchdown pass to receiver Kevin White. Big plays in the drive came from running back Wendell Smallwood with a reception of 14 yards and a run of 20 to keep the chains moving.

After the Mountaineer defense held the Cowboy offense on downs, Trickett went right back to the air three minutes later on West Virginia's next possession.

The Mountaineers marched 90 yards in just three plays, keyed by a 79-yard scoring toss from Trickett to senior receiver Mario Alford. The play was West Virginia's longest from scrimmage to date on the season and gave the Mountaineers a 14-0 lead with 7:49 left in the opening quarter.

The Mountaineer defense held strong for the remainder of the quarter, as true freshman defensive back Dravon Henry stopped another Cowboy drive with an interception.

Oklahoma State scored its first points early in the second quarter, when kicker Ben Grogan connected on a 40-yard field goal to put the score at 14-3 at the 14:11 mark.

After a West Virginia drive stalled, the Cowboy offense went on the attack once again, and used a 51-yard rush by Brandon Sheperd, and 30 yards rushing on three plays from tailback Tyreek Hill to move to the WVU eight-yard line. OSU quarterback Daxx Garman then found Teddy Johnson open in the flat for an eight-yard touchdown reception, pulling the Cowboys to 14-10 with 8:34 left in the half.

Oklahoma State had another scoring chance thwarted by the WVU defense, when the Cowboys reached the Mountaineer nine-yard line. A big 10-yard sack of Garman and a missed field goal by Grogan gave the Mountaineers the 14-10 advantage at the half.

The strong defensive play by the Mountaineers continued in the second half. OSU would not convert on a third-down play until the middle of the fourth quarter and wound up just two of 15 on third down. The Cowboys turned in yardage, but no points in the final two quarters.

Meanwhile, Trickett and the Mountaineer offense were slowly putting the game out of reach. WVU added a 39-yard Josh Lambert field goal in the third quarter, and a 43-yarder from Lambert for a 20-10 lead with 10:14 left in the game.

Wendell Smallwood

When the Cowboys went on the offensive again to try to close the gap, Henry turned his second interception of the game into a 52-yard touchdown and essentially put the game away. Dreamius Smith added an insurance score with just over 3:00 left, when he scampered 40 yards for a touchdown, putting the final score at 34-10 in favor of the road team.

Trickett was a solid 21-of-30 passing for 238 yards and two scores. Smallwood, subbing for the injured Rushel Shell, turned in his second straight 100-yard rushing performance with 132 yards on 23 carries, and Alford finished with seven catches for 136 yards. Leading the way for the WVU defense was safety Karl Joseph with eight tackles, followed by linebacker Nick Kwiatkoski with seven stops and lineman Kyle Rose with six.

Oklahoma State got 242 yards passing from Garman, but he had 20 incompletions on his stat line. Hill finished with 78 yards rushing, while James Washington caught five passes for 87 yards.

The Cowboy defense was led by Jordan Sterns with an impressive 20 tackles and one TFL.

Final numbers showed a very even game as West Virginia gained 210 yards rushing compared to OSU's 194. Passing numbers had the Mountaineers with 238 to Oklahoma State 242, putting the final offensive numbers at 448 for West Virginia and 436 for the Cowboys.

The win gave West Virginia a second straight victory over Oklahoma State and a 4-2 edge in the all-time series. The victory was also WVU's sixth of the season, making the Mountaineers bowl eligible after eight games.

Game No. 9: No. 10/10 TCU 31, No. 20/22 West Virginia 30

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Nov. 1, 2014) - No. 10/10 TCU and No. 20/22 West Virginia continued their string of exciting games, as the Horned Frogs used a last second field goal to down the Mountaineers, 31-30, in front of 61,190 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

Since the two teams joined the Big 12 three years ago, the games have been old-fashioned barnburners, as the prior two went to the wire in overtime before the 2014 version was won on the game's last play.

The chilly Nov. 1 Saturday got started in Morgantown early in the morning with ESPN's College GameDay making its first appearance at WVU since 2011. The Horned Frogs and Mountaineers then gave the ABC television audience a classic back-and-forth Big 12 game.

West Virginia started strong and made the most of the game's opening possession, marching 75 yards in 10 plays to score the game's first touchdown. Key plays were back-to-back 23-yard completions from quarterback Clint Trickett, first to Kevin White to keep the drive alive and then to Mario Alford for the game's first score and a 7-0 West Virginia lead. The score was Alford's seventh touchdown of the season.

The Mountaineers extended the lead to 10-0 on their next possession. Driving 51 yards in 14 plays, WVU used runs of 11 yards from Wendell Smallwood and 14 yards from Rushel Shell to set up a 21-yard field goal from Josh Lambert with 6:19 remaining in the quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, West Virginia kicker Michael Molinari used a pooch on-sides kick that the Mountaineers recovered at the TCU 30-yard line.

Three plays later, the Mountaineer offense could not find the end zone, setting up Lambert's second field goal of the quarter, and his 44-yarder gave West Virginia a 13-0 advantage.

The Horned Frogs could have easily been down 21-0, but by holding West Virginia to two field goals, kept themselves in the game and then struck for their first score just before the end of the quarter. Quarterback Trevone Boykin found receiver Deante' Gray for a 47-yard scoring toss, cutting the TCU deficit to 13-7 heading into the second stanza.

Turnovers and solid defensive play led to a scoreless second quarter, before TCU took the lead at the 9:18 mark of the third. Taking advantage of a Mountaineer fumble, the Horned Frogs drove 27 yards and grabbed a 14-13 lead on Boykin's two-yard run.

Trailing for the first time in the game, West Virginia answered TCU with a score of its own. Fueled by a Dreamius Smith 50-yard run, WVU turned in a 79-yard scoring drive that ended with a five-yard scoring run for Smith and a 20-14 WVU advantage. Smith's 50-yard scamper was the team's longest run of the season, and the touchdown marked his third straight game with a rushing score.

Dreamius Smith

Things continued to look good for the Mountaineers on TCU's next possession, when cornerback Terrell Chestnut forced and returned a Horned Frog fumble 35 yards for a 27-14 lead.

TCU didn't panic and answered before the end of the third by grabbing its second interception to set up a 23-yard run by B.J. Catalon for a 27-21 game heading into the fourth.

On its next possession, West Virginia used a 46-yard completion from Trickett to Alford to set up Lambert for a 23-yard field goal and a 30-21 lead.

However, the game's final 10 points were scored by the Horned Frogs. Catalon's second touchdown came off a six-yard run to pull the Horned Frogs to within two at 30-28, before the TCU defense turned in big stops to give the ball back to its offense.

TCU used the last 2:07 of the game to drive 56 yards, and Jaden Oberkrom's 37-yard field goal was good as time expired to lift the Horned Frogs to the 31-30 victory.

Before the final field goal, TCU trailed for all but 2:27 in the game, but its defense and five Mountaineer turnovers kept the Horned Frogs in position to win it at the end.

Final totals showed West Virginia with 195 yards rushing and 162 yards passing to total 357 yards of total offense. TCU's totals finished out at 223 yards rushing and 166 passing for 389 yards of offense.

With the win, TCU evened the series with West Virginia at 2-2 with the road team winning the last three games.

Game No. 10: Texas 33, No. 24/25 West Virginia 16

AUSTIN, Texas (Nov. 8, 2014) - No. 24/25 West Virginia fell behind early and never recovered, dropping a 33-16 decision at Texas in front of 95,714 at Darrell K Royal - Texas Memorial Stadium.

The Longhorns scored first and never trailed. Behind quarterback Tyrone Swoopes, Texas chewed up a big chunk of the first-quarter clock with an 11-play, 90-yard drive that ended with a Swoopes two-yard touchdown pass to Geoff Swaim. In the scoring drive, Swoopes completed passes of 15 yards to Jaxon Shipley and 29 yards to John Harris to keep the chains moving and give the Longhorns a 7-0 lead.

West Virginia answered the score on its next drive by marching 40 yards to the Texas one-yard line. However, three plays from the one could not get the Mountaineers in the end zone, and they had to settle for a 22-yard Josh Lambert field goal. A false start penalty on a fourth down try backed the football to the five-yard line and forced the field goal decision.

Unfortunately for West Virginia, that was its best scoring opportunity of the first half, as Texas controlled the second quarter, outscoring the Mountaineers by a 17-0 count.

The Longhorns took a 14-3 advantage at the 8:56 mark of the second quarter, when running back Johnathan Gray broke loose for a 39-yard touchdown run.

On the next possession, the Longhorn running game continued to excel with runs of 25 yards from Malcolm Brown and 40 yards from Gray. Those were the two big plays in a 78-yard scoring drive that was capped by a two-yard Gray touchdown run, giving the Longhorns a 21-3 lead with 6:19 remaining.

Two possessions later, Quandre Diggs intercepted WVU quarterback Clint Trickett to set up the final points of the first half. Longhorn kicker Nick Rose's 39-yard field goal was good, giving Texas a 24-3 lead at the half.

A scoreless third quarter set the stage for a 22-point fourth. West Virginia scored its first touchdown early in the fourth on a nine-yard Dreamius Smith run, cutting the deficit to 24-10 and giving Smith four straight games with a rushing touchdown.

Texas sacked Trickett in the end zone for a safety on WVU's next drive, giving the Longhorns a 26-10 lead. Even with the safety, it still was a two possession game for the Mountaineers with plenty of time left.

West Virginia got even closer at the 6:38 mark, when Smith broke loose for a 62-yard run that set up a three-yard scoring rush by Wendell Smallwood. WVU's two-point conversion failed, and Texas had a 26-16 advantage.

However, the Longhorns put an exclamation point on the game with Gray's third touchdown run with just over 3:00 left to seal the game.

West Virginia got a standout performance from receiver Kevin White with 16 receptions for 132 yards. The 16 receptions were a school record, breaking the old mark of 14 held by Stedman Bailey and Tavon Austin. White recorded his eighth 100-yard receiving game of 2014, and posted his fifth game of 10 or more receptions on the season.

Trickett 248 yards passing put him over the 3,000-yard mark for the season. He became just the third Mountaineer quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in a season.

Smith added 100 yards rushing, while the defense was led by Nick Kwiatkoski's 10 tackles and Daryl Worley's eight stops and one interception.

For Texas, Gray's big day included three touchdowns and 101 yards on the ground. He averaged 10.1 yards per rush. Brown added 90 yards rushing, while Swoopes finished with 124 yards passing.

The Longhorn defense was led by Dylan Haines and Cedric Reed, who combined for 26 tackles, four tackles for loss of 22 yards and three sacks.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 200 yards rushing and 248 passing to total 448 yards of offense. Texas rushed for 227 yards and passed for 124 to finish with 351 yards of total offense.

Texas evened its record at 5-5 on the season, while West Virginia dropped to 6-4. In all-time Big 12 play, the victory gave Texas a 2-1 advantage and tied the overall series at 2-2.

Game No. 11: No. 12/11 Kansas State 26, West Virginia 20

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Nov. 20, 2014) - West Virginia could not overcome four turnovers and dropped a 26-20 Thursday night decision to No. 12/11 Kansas State.

The Wildcats had their issues, too, on the cold and windy November evening, with two turnovers and missed opportunities that kept the Mountaineers in the game. Kansas State had chances to put the game away, but never did, and a pesky Mountaineer squad never quit and kept battling from behind the entire evening.

To start the game, K-State grabbed a 10-0 lead and immediately put the Mountaineers in the comeback mode.

The Wildcats' opening drive traveled 49 yards and totaled eight plays as quarterback Jake Waters hit DeMarcus Robinson for a seven-yard touchdown reception with 8:57 on the clock in the first quarter.

West Virginia missed on a great scoring opportunity later in the quarter, fumbling on the K-State two-yard line.

The Wildcats extended their lead to 10-0 at the 12:53 mark of the second quarter, when kicker Matthew McCrane finished off an eight-play, 65-yard drive with a 36-yard field goal.

West Virginia countered with a field goal of its own with 8:10 remaining in the first half. Kicker Josh Lambert converted on a 47-yarder to cut the WVU deficit to 10-3.

K-State was able to get on the board once more before intermission. With just 1:06 remaining before the half, Tyler Lockett returned a Nick O'Toole punt 43 yards for a score, and West Virginia trailed 17-3 at the half.

Second half action saw the West Virginia offense come alive. After a 61-yard K-State drive ended with a McCrane 44-yard field goal, the Mountaineers cut into the 17-point deficit.

Subbing for the injured Clint Trickett, who left the game in the third quarter with a concussion, backup quarterback Skyler Howard engineered West Virginia's first touchdown drive of the game. Embarking on an eight-play, 79-yard excursion, Howard hit big pass completions of 29 and 15 yards, before finding senior receiver Kevin White for a seven-yard scoring toss.

With the momentum seemingly in hand and the crowd back into the game, the Mountaineers were set to get the ball back at the 5:18 mark of the third, but a special teams fumble on the ensuing punt return gave new life to the Wildcats.

Starting at the WVU 16-yard line, the Wildcats eventually got to the two, where the Mountaineer defense forced them to settle for a 19-yard McCrane field goal and a 23-10 advantage heading to the fourth.

While the Mountaineer defense kept the Wildcats at bay and forced field goals, the WVU offense went back to work with 9:26 left in the game.

Howard was strong again with completions of nine and 14 yards, hooking up with a 53-yard touchdown strike to Mario Alford to cut the KSU led to 23-17 with 7:23 left.

However, Kansas State did what it needed to do in the final minutes to secure the victory. K-State added a fourth McCrane field goal, this one of 32 yards, to pull ahead 26-17. A Josh Lambert field goal from 25 yards out pulled WVU to 26-20, but KSU recovered the onside kick to seal the game.

The loss overshadowed the solid play of the Mountaineer defense, which held K-State to just one-yard rushing (the fewest in the Holgorsen era) and matched a season-high total of 10 tackles for loss. KJ Dillon led the defense with a career-high eight tackles. Dillon also had his top marks in solo tackles (7) and TFL (2.5)

Rushel Shell finished with 60 yards rushing, and Alford had 92 yards receiving and one score. In his first significant action, Howard passed for 198 yards on 15 completions with two touchdowns.

For K-State, Lockett totaled 10 catches for 196 yards, while Waters passed for an even 400 yards. Dakorey Johnson and Jonathan Truman each totaled 10 tackles.

West Virginia finished with 123 yards rushing and 310 passing for 433 yards of offense. Kansas State's final totals stood at 400 yards passing and just the one yard rushing for 401 total yards of offense.

The game marked the last home game for 19 seniors with this being the class that transitioned WVU from the Big East to the Big 12 Conference.

With the win, Kansas State improved to 3-0 against West Virginia in Big 12 play.

Game No. 12: West Virginia 37, Iowa State 24

AMES, IOWA (Nov. 29, 2014) - West Virginia erased a 14-point second-quarter deficit by scoring 20 unanswered points and defeated home-standing Iowa State, 37-24, at Jack Trice Stadium.

Playing without the services of starting quarterback Clint Trickett, backup Skyler Howard capped his first career start with three touchdown passes and 285 yards passing.

Howard rushed for 69 yards on seven carries, as the sophomore calmly led the offense and helped the Mountaineers break a three-game losing streak.

West Virginia took an early 7-0 lead as the Mountaineers scored on their opening drive for the eighth time in 12 games. Tailback Rushel Shell got his day started with a 54-yard touchdown run, ending a six-play, 76-yard drive. Shell's run was West Virginia's longest scoring run of the season.

It didn't take long for the Cyclones to answer as they tied the game on their first offensive possession. Led by key pass completions of 20 and 39 yards, ISU marched 80 yards and tied the game on Aaron Wimberly's three-yard run.

That touchdown sparked a 21-point Iowa State offensive explosion, as the Cyclones would score a touchdown on two of their next three drives to take a 21-7 lead early in the second quarter.

An 11-play, 68-yard drive ended with a five-yard scoring toss from Sam Richardson to Wimberly, before the Cyclones took advantage of a Dreamius Smith fumble for their third score of the game.

ISU recovered the Smith fumble at the WVU 37-yard line, and three plays later, Richardson hit Tad Ecby for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Finding themselves down 14 did not rattle the Mountaineers. In fact, they played some of their best football of the season for the rest of the half to regain control of the game.

Howard used completions of 28 and 29 yards to move the offense and closed the deficit to 21-14 on his touchdown pass to Mario Alford.

Then on its next possession, West Virginia got a 29-yard completion to Jordan Thompson and a 24-yard run by Howard to spark the game-tying drive that ended with a four-yard scoring toss to Alford with 7:22 remaining. The Mountaineers erased the 14-point deficit in just over four minutes and then turned their sights on retaking the lead.

WVU kicker Josh Lambert closed out the half with two field goals to propel the Mountaineers into a 27-21 lead at the intermission. Lambert hit from 46 and 32 yards to cap off the 20-point run.

Iowa State received the ball to start the second half and embarked on a 6:01 drive that traveled 54 yards in 14 plays. Reaching the WVU 11-yard line, the Mountaineer defense bent but did not break and forced a Cyclone field goal, which Cole Netten converted from 34-yards out.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead, the Mountaineers went scoreless in the third quarter and relied on their defense to keep the game in hand. By forcing ISU to punt twice and then collecting a Terrell Chestnut interception in the end zone was just what the WVU offense needed to get going.

West Virginia upped its lead to 34-24 at the 9:10 mark of the fourth, when a 40-yard completion from Howard to Alford set up a 15-yard touchdown pass to Daikiel Shorts.

The Mountaineers finished off the scoring with 5:29 remaining, when Lambert converted his third field goal of the game, this one from 43 yards, giving WVU the 13-point win.

Aside from Howard's numbers, West Virginia got a career-high rushing effort from Shell with 146 yards on 22 carries. Alford finished with 86 yards receiving and two scores and a very solid Mountaineer defense was led by Wes Tonkery with 12 tackles and a sack. Nick Kwiatkoski and JJ Dillon finished with 11 tackles each.

For Iowa State, Richardson passed for 275 yards, and Wimberly added 77 yards rushing. D'Vario Montgomery led the Cyclones with 71 yards receiving, while Brian Mills had nine tackles.

West Virginia's offense could not have been any more balanced than it was at Iowa State. The Mountaineers rushed for 285 yards on 38 carries and passed for 285 yards on 41 attempts to total 570 yards of offense. Iowa State totaled 135 yards rushing and 275 passing for 410 total yards.

The win gave West Virginia its first winning conference mark (5-4) in its three-year Big 12 history and first road winning mark (3-1) in the league.

The victory finished a 7-5 regular season for West Virginia, and gave the Mountaineers a 2-1 lead in the series with Iowa State.

AutoZone Liberty Bowl: Texas A&M 45, West Virginia 37

MEMPHIS, TENN. (Dec. 29, 2014) - West Virginia's appearance in the 56th AutoZone Liberty Bowl saw the Mountaineers drop a 45-37 decision to Texas A&M.

The game marked the 50th anniversary of West Virginia's first appearance in the Liberty Bowl in 1964.

The 2014 game saw the Mountaineers jump out to a 10-point first-quarter lead, but they could not hold off the Aggies in the high-scoring affair.

The game was a matchup of two similar explosive offenses, which both got off to a quick start, as the teams combined for 34 first quarter points and 55 in the first half.

After the teams traded possessions, Texas A&M started the offensive fireworks with a 44-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kyle Allen to receiver Josh Reynolds.

The Mountaineers were able to answer nearly four minutes later with a Josh Lambert 32-yard field goal, cutting the deficit to 7-3.

West Virginia took its first lead in the game at the 5:12 mark of the first quarter, when sophomore quarterback Skyler Howard connected with senior receiver Mario Alford on a 45-yard touchdown strike.

The Mountaineers extended their lead on Texas A&M's next possession, when safety KJ Dillon intercepted an Allen pass and returned it 35 yards for a score, and a 17-7 WVU advantage with 4:54 to play in the opening quarter.

The Aggies answered with a big 11-play, 89-yard drive that ended with a 40-yard scoring toss from Allen to Trey Williams to put the score at 17-14.

But West Virginia wasn't finished. Lambert converted on his second field goal of the quarter as time expired, giving WVU a 20-14 advantage.

A six-play, 60-yard drive enabled the Aggies to take a 21-20 lead, as Allen hit Malcome Kennedy for an 11-yard score.

But just two plays and less than a minute later, Howard connected with All-American receiver Kevin White for a 49-yard touchdown, putting the Mountaineers back up 27-21 with 11:56 remaining in the half.

The Aggies closed out the high-scoring half with only 53 seconds left, when Allen took off for a 14-yard scamper, giving A&M a 28-27 lead at intermission.

Counting the final touchdown of the second quarter, the Aggies scored 17 unanswered points to grab a 38-27 lead midway through the third quarter.

A Josh Lambo 26-yard field, and a 18-yard touchdown run by Williams led the Aggies to the 11-point lead.

Lambert finally broke the scoring run at the 5:10 mark of the third with a 31-yard field goal. It was Lambert's third field goal on the afternoon, and it cut the A&M margin to eight at 38-30.

Perhaps the final blow came on A&M's next possession as the Aggies basically ran out the third quarter with an 11-play, 73-yard drive that ended with a nine-yard pass from Allen to Kennedy, putting the score at 45-30 heading to the fourth.

West Virginia had chances in the fourth, but a fumble and missed opportunities hurt the Mountaineers' chances.

The final score in the contest came with 2:32 left as WVU's Elijah Wellman hauled in a four-yard pass from Howard. When the Aggies recovered the onside kick, they ran out the clock and took home the 45-37 victory.

West Virginia was led with 129 yards receiving from White, who was named WVU's most outstanding offensive player by the media. Howard ended with 20 completions for 346 yards and three touchdowns, while Wendell Smallwood was able to gain 77 yards on the ground to lead the WVU rushing effort. The Mountaineer defense was led by Karl Joseph with 10 tackles, and Dillon was named the team's outstanding defensive performer for his interception return.

The Aggies were paced by Tra Carson with 133 yards on the ground. Allen's totals stood at 294 yards passing and four scores, while accounting for another TD with his legs. Kennedy had 82 yards receiving to go with his two touchdowns, and Donovan Wilson led the Aggie defense with nine stops

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 126 yards rushing and 346 passing to total 472 yards of offense. A&M finished with a balanced 235 on the ground and 294 through the air for 529 yards of offense.

With the loss, WVU dropped to 14-19 all-time in bowl games.
